Church Car Park Update

As a result of the consistently problematic parking in the Church yard resulting in it being unavailable for all church services, we have been forced to address the issue.

Gates have been erected and over the coming weeks will be closed periodically at first but ultimately will then be locked nightly at 7.30pm and opened at 10am in the mornings with the exception of Saturdays when they will remain closed until 5pm.

New signage will be erected on the entrance walls during the week, we would ask you for your patience and support while we find the best way to address the issue and we are open to hearing any suggestions or solutions from parishioners. In the meantime, we would just remind people to be considerate when parking.

PATRON DATE

Sunday, 10th August at 3pm

St. Mary's / Enniscorthy Cemeteries

Please note there are no parking passes being given out this year. NO PARKING will be allowed in St. Mary's Cemetery at any time on Sunday 10th August. Parking spaces are limited, and every effort will be made to facilitate the disabled and elderly. Please use the field carpark which will close at 4.30pm. People are asked to co-operate with the Gardai and parking attendants they are there to ensure the smooth running of traffic.

Please support the gate collection, it helps the committee greatly with running costs including insurance, bin collections, disposal of waste, garden machinery and its maintenance, petrol for mowers, toilet maintenance, sound system and Patron expenses.

THE HOOK OF FAITH

'The Church Must Show Leadership in Gaza' is an article that confronts our responsibilities and response to the humanitarian disaster unfolding in the Middle-East. Bishop Robert Barron speaks to the youth gathered for their Jubilee in Rome and encourages the Irish to take back the spirit of St Patrick into their lives, friendships and parishes. We have the second part of the article on 'The Priest as Servant' and a homily for the Nineteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time where Jesus calls on us to be intentional and focused disciples in this new Apostolic Age. We have articles and reflections for the feast day of Saints Clare, and Maximilian Kolbe and another for the feast of the Assumption of Our Lady on 15th August. Finally, we feature a saying from a Desert Mother on the strength that God provides for us to live the Gospel. Check out these are other resources available at www.thehookoffaith.com

Remember Me – To the Living I Am Gone

Margaret Mead

To the living, I am gone,
To the sorrowful, I will never return,
To the angry, I was cheated,
But to the happy, I am at peace,
And to the faithful, I have never left.
I cannot speak, but I can listen.
I cannot be seen, but I can be heard.

So, as you stand upon the shore gazing at a beautiful sea – remember me.
As you look in awe at a mighty forest and its grand majesty – remember me.
As you look upon a flower and admire its simplicity - remember me.

Remember me in your heart;
your thoughts, your memories, of the times we loved,
The times we cried,
The times we fought,
The times we laughed.
For if you always think of me,
I will never have gone.
