Update: First Communion & Confirmation 2021

First Communion & Confirmation Update 02.06.21:

A response from the Department of the Taoiseach has been received.

Public health advice remains that special religious ceremonies, including First Holy Communion and Confirmations, should continue to be postponed for the month of June.

In line with the gradual reopening of society, from 5th July onwards, we have been told that these ceremonies may take place, while complying with Covid-19 guidance.

Parishes are asked to ensure that all Covid-19 safety measures continue to be followed. Furthermore, given that the more serious concerns relate to the social gatherings which typically follow these events, parishes are asked to remind all concerned to adhere to prevailing public health advice on household mixing and indoor and outdoor gatherings.

THE HOOK OF FAITH THIS WEEK

The feast of St Colmcille falls on 9th June and this year marks the 15th centenary of his birth. Ibar Quirke explores the life and witness of one of Ireland's patron saints. Fr Brian Broaders offers the homily for the feast of Corpus Christi and we also have an article that appreciates the Mass as God's way of loving us. On Friday 11th is the feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and 'World Day of Prayer for the Sanctification of Priests'. As many priests celebrate their anniversaries in these days, we offer words of encouragement. There is the usual newsletter insert and poetry by Philip Quirke.
