Coronavirus musings from the presbytery window

Just an update on progress:

The Coronavirus: A very long penitential season - from above In progress.

The phenomenal growth in small ego life - cut off from big life - is the primary reason for the decline in organized religion In progress.

Love is the standard by which God will judge us - but it is love of a much higher standard than we appreciate In progress.

The future of the church and the world is hidden in plain sight - in the life and teaching of Jesus Completed.

Can we make any sense of our uninvited suffering? Completed.

THE HOOK OF FAITH THIS WEEK

Pope Francis often speaks of an 'inter-generational solidarity' that seeks to bridge cultural and relational gaps between different generations. In advance of the first annual 'Day for Grandparents and the Elderly' we provide some reflections and resources. We have a homily and an article for the Sixteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time where Jesus invites us to 'come away and rest for a while' in these summer months. We have the usual newsletter insert and a feature on St Mary of Magdala whose feast falls on 22nd July.

Included is the sixth part of the series 'A New Irish Catholicism' that calls the Church to be newly courageous and confident. Finally, we explore a recent survey by the Iona Institute that tracks a rise in anti-Catholic bias and discrimination. Check out these and other resources available at www.thehookoffaith.com.
