THE HOOK OF FAITH

The featured video this week is a talk by Prof. Patricia Casey on how to support those who care for people with mental health struggles. The homily for the Twenty-Eighth Sunday of Ordinary Time is offered by Sr Louise O' Rourke who reflects on Jesus' encounter with the rich young man. We feature Bishop Robert Barron's series on the Rosary for the month of October and an article on why mission matters for this month which is also dedicated to the missions. There is an important article on 'Keeping the Faith' published by Dr Christian Smith in 'First Things' and inspiring quotes from Saints John 23rd and Teresa of Avila whose feast days we celebrate this week. Check out these and other resources available at www.thehookoffaith.com

I feel I'm losing my breath.

I join in with the crowd praying the rosary, and as the time of the apparition approaches I feel increasingly breathless, and I think, "Our Lady is about to come!"

I would probably hyperventilate or pass out if not for the calming effects of prayer.

The feeling builds to a crescendo.

I put my hand over my chest as if to prevent my heart from jumping out.

I gasp for air.

Suddenly it's as if someone flicks a switch - the world disappears and I'm encompassed in a great unending blueness.

Our Lady is before me in the middle of it all.

Every pain and fear disappears.

I'm comforted.

I'm loved.

I'm complete (Mirjana stresses "complete").

"Praised be Jesus," she says.

Wonderstruck, it takes me a moment to reply.

"May He always be praised, my dear Mother."

But with the floodgates of my heart now open, a river of love spills out of my mouth.

I cannot control the expressions of love in those first breathless moments.

Mirjana Soldo (Medjugorje) describing the early moments of an apparition.
