“Synodal”

comes from a Greek word which means “walking together”

In these days, the Catholic Church throughout the world and in Ireland is beginning a series of conversations about what God wants of his people at this time. These conversations are often referred to as a Synodal Process. “Synodal” comes from a Greek word which means “walking together”.

On Sunday 17th October we mark the opening of this Synodal Process entitled, For a synodal Church: communion, participation and mission. This Synodal Process coincides with the start of the two-year Synodal Pathway for the Catholic Church in Ireland which will lead, in time, to a National Synodal Assembly in Ireland.

We pray that the next two years will be a time of prayer, listening and discernment, involving a consultative conversation. This will allow all people - both within the Church and in society at large, to share their insights into the Catholic Church in Ireland - past, present and future - so that we can prepare for a National Synodal Assembly in the coming years.

St. Senan's Primary School

Saturday, 11th June

11.00am and 2.00pm

I'm no longer on Earth.

The pilgrims see me there - my lips moving inaudibly and tears streaming down my face - but I'm not aware of anyone or anything around me.

I'm not even on the hill anymore.

Everything is concealed by the blueness, which itself is difficult to describe.

I might compare it to the colour of the sky on a cloudless day in springtime, but it's really nothing like the sky.

It's more than just a colour.

It's like a place and a feeling at the same time.

It envelopes me and Our Lady.

The only time I ever see some of the people around me are the rare instances when she prays over people.

Somehow I do not have to turn my head to see them.

When she prays for a particular individual, she raises her hand in his direction, or she simply looks at him with an expression of care, concern, or sorrow, but never with anger.

She does not tell me why she prays over certain people, but after the apparition I always try to tell the person what occurred.

THE HOOK OF FAITH

Jordan Peterson is a Canadian psychologist who shot to fame with his 2018 book 12 Rules for Life which became an international bestseller. In the book Peterson argues that the call to virtue and moral integrity is a requirement to achieve our potential. On his feast day on 22nd October, we compare this message to the witness of St John Paul II. We have a homily for the Twenty-Ninth Sunday of Ordinary Time by Sr Louise O'Rourke who reflects on Jesus' mission to serve and not be served. We have the usual newsletter insert and Pope Francis's message for World Youth Day 2021. Our video this week is by actor Denzel Washington who explains his conversion to Christianity. Finally, we anticipate 'Mission Sunday' which falls next week on Sunday 24th. Check out these and other resources available at www.thehookoffaith.com
