Concert to raise funds for Ukrainian Aid

A huge public response is expected for the Ukrainian Humanitarian Aid Concert which is taking place in St. Mary's Church of Ireland on Saturday night, May 28th.

The concert is being organised by Enniscorthy Lions Club in association with Failte Enniscorthy and will feature some of County Wexford's top entertainers, all of whom are giving their services free of charge.

Enniscorthy is presently home to more than 200 Ukrainian refugees who have been displaced by the war, many of whom have nothing more than the clothes in which they stand. The staging of the concert provides an ideal opportunity for the people of Enniscorthy to show their concern for the plight of the refugees and it is hoped the event will be a sell out so that essential provisions can be provided for those most in need.

Tickets at €20.00 each can be obtained from Linda in the Parish Office, Telephone 053 9261729, or from the following outlets:

St. Aidan's Parish Office, Telephone 053 9235777, St. Mary's Church of Ireland (between 2 p.m. and 5 p.m. daily), Telephone 053 9239009, The Riverside Park Hotel, Telephone 053 9237800, Enniscorthy Chamber of Commerce, Telephone 053 9232006, Enniscorthy Cleaners, Abbey Square, Telephone 053 9236466. Enniscorthy Golf Club, Telephone 053 9233191 or from Lions Club or Failte Enniscorthy members.

THE HOOK OF FAITH

'Why we evangelise' is an inspiring talk given by Bishop Robert Barron recently. It takes us back to why we bother in the first place. What does the Church have to offer? As the synodal process moves forward in our diocese, we look forward to the next meeting to discuss the synthesis document which takes place in the Riverside Park Hotel on Monday next, 23rd May at 7.30pm. All are welcome. We have a homily for the Sixth Sunday of Easter where the early Church adopted a synodal path to resolve issues it faced. Jesus also leaves us his beautiful gift of peace and encourages us not to be troubled or afraid. The newsletter insert is taken from Bishop Michael Duignan's installation as the new bishop of Galway and Clonfert. Check out these and other resources available at www.thehookoffaith.com
