Prayer for Ukraine recited by Pope
Francis at his weekly general audience
March 16th 2022

Composed by Archbishop Domenico Battaglia of Naples.

Forgive us for the war, Lord.

Lord Jesus, son of God, have mercy on us sinners.

Lord Jesus, born under the bombs of Kyiv, have mercy on us.

Lord Jesus, dead in the arms of a mother in Kharkiv, have mercy on us.

Lord Jesus, in the 20-year-olds sent to the frontline, have mercy on us.

Lord Jesus, who continues to see hands armed with weapons
under the shadow of the cross, forgive us, Lord.

Forgive us if, not content with the nails with which we pierced your hand, we continue to drink from the blood of the dead torn apart by weapons.

Forgive us if these hands that you had created to protect have been turned into instruments of death.

Forgive us, Lord, if we continue to kill our brother.

Forgive us, Lord, if we continue to kill our brother, if we continue like Cain to take the stones from our field to kill Abel.

Forgive us if we go out of our way to justify cruelty, if, in our pain, we legitimize the cruelty of our actions.

Forgive us the war, Lord.

Lord Jesus Christ, son of God, we implore you to stop the hand of Cain, enlighten our conscience, let not our will be done, do not abandon us to our own doing.

Stop us, Lord, stop us, and when you have stopped the hand of Cain, take care of him also. He is our brother.

O Lord, stop the violence.

Stop us, Lord. Amen.

THE HOOK OF FAITH

The Gospel for this Fourth Sunday of Lent or 'Laetare Sunday' is perhaps the greatest of Jesus' parables – the Prodigal Son. It is a story that can never be emptied of its riches. The homily and newsletter insert unpack the meaning of this treasure that never ceases to challenge and inspire.
Sunday is also Mother's Day and we feature two inspiring poems. We have a reflection on the Pope's act of consecration of Russia and Ukraine to the Immaculate Heart of Mary and our video this week is an interview with Prof. Eamon Conway on the synodal pathway. Check out these and other resources available at www.thehookoffaith.com
