The Hook of Faith

To mark 'International Day Against Drug Abuse and Illicit Trafficking', Pope Francis spoke out about the evil of drug abuse – a problem that is having an impact in every village, town and city of our country. We have a homily for the Fourteen Sunday of Ordinary Time where St Paul gets in touch with his own 'thorn in the flesh' and realises the power of God's grace for: 'When I am weak, I am strong'. Neil Foley shares another article with us and Mgr. James Shea talks about how we can bring the Gospel to a Post-Christian world. On the feast of St Benedict who is co-patron of Europe, we revisit the original vision for the European Union and what it means for citizens of individual countries today. Finally, we explore the place of beauty in catechesis and how the beauty found in creation, music, art and the lives of the saints can draw us closer to the source of beauty who is God. Check
