Feast of the Sacred Heart

In Ireland there has been a great devotion to the Sacred Heart. Some of us growing up would remember in most homes the picture of the sacred heart with the red lamp lit underneath.

Devotion to the Sacred Heart, encouraged by mediaeval mystics and promoted by St Gertrude, St Margaret Mary Alacoque, St John Eudes and others, represents a devotion to Jesus in his human nature, in particular referring to the heart as the seat of the emotions. Next Friday 27th of June is the Feast of the Sacred Heart and the novena prayer is available on the newsletter for you to take with you.

Novena Prayer to the Sacred Heart 19th of June – 27th of June

O Divine Jesus, who said,
"Ask and you shall receive", I kneel at your feet.

From whom shall I ask if not from you,
whose heart is the source of all blessings.

With a lively faith in you,

I come to ask...

share your petitions silently with the Sacred Heart.

I admit I am most unworthy of your favours,
Jesus, but this is not a reason for me to be discouraged.

You are the God of mercies,
and you will not refuse a contrite heart.

Look with pity on me, I beg you,
and your compassionate Heart will find in my weakness a motive for granting my request.

Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, have mercy on me. Amen.

The Solemnity of the birth of St. John the Baptist

On Tuesday next, we celebrate the Birth of St. John the Baptist. Apart from Mary and Joseph, John the Baptist is the only saint in the General Calendar who has two feasts to himself. One, in August, celebrates his death, and one, in June, celebrates his birth. And this is as it should be, for as Christ himself said, John was the greatest of the sons of men.

Summer Holidays

We wish the 6th class pupils all the best as they complete their primary school education and get ready to start the next chapter in secondary school in September.

As the holidays fast approach, we hope all pupils, teachers and staff enjoy safe and happy holidays and a well-deserved rest.
