Autumn Grace Retreat Friday/Sunday 18-20 September 2026

Arrival On Friday between 4.00 and 5.00pm, Evening meal at 6.00 pm, Departure Sunday after Mass and Lunch. Facilitated by Slí an Chroí Retreat Team.

"For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven." Autumn invites us to pause. It is a season of harvest and fading, colour and letting go—a living parable of gratitude, honest reflection, surrender and hope. - This weekend retreat offers an opportunity to look back on the year, and on the journey of our lives, in the gentle light of God's grace. - Through guided reflection, prayer, silence, time in nature and shared conversation, we will explore:

Retreat Themes • Gratitude: What am I grateful for?

• Regret and healing: What needs forgiveness or healing in my life? • What to carry forward: What have I learned? What has given me meaning and purpose? • What to let go: What is no longer helpful or life-giving? • Fountains of life: What sources of faith, hope and love will sustain.

For enquiries and booking, please contact Michèle Sinnott Email: slianchoi@spms.ie or phone: 089 4690508 Price: €315, including accommodation and meals, Slí an Chroí, St. Patrick's, Kiltegan, Co. Wicklow, W91 Y022 www.spms.org/sli-an-choi.
