Heavenly Father,
We will gather this Patron Sunday with hearts full of love and memory. Thank you for the gift of the community around us, and for the deep roots of faith and tradition that bind us together.

On this sacred day, we place into your hands our beloved dead. We remember our family members, friends, and neighbours who once walked this earth with us, shared in our joys, and carried our burdens. Though they are no longer with us in body, their love remains woven into the fabric of our lives.

Fill our hearts with the sure hope of the resurrection, and inspire us to live our lives with the same faith, kindness, and devotion that our ancestors showed to us. Amen.
