PLANT DAFFODILS NOW FOR DAFFODIL DAY 2027

Our community is preparing for Daffodil Day in March 2027, and we need your help. Now is the perfect time to plant daffodil bulbs. Plant them in your garden, at your school, or in other suitable community spaces. By Spring your space will be filled with beautiful yellow blooms signalling hope and joy, and a vital part of our annual daffodil day fundraiser

Every year the Enniscorthy Daffodil Day Committee look for donations of fresh daffodils to sell on Daffodil day. Now is a great time to get started and be part of our national fundraiser to help beat cancer. Let's plant together now.
