Upcoming Feast Days

Saints Simon and Jude 29th of October

St Simon, Apostle

Simon is eleventh in the list of the twelve Apostles. He is known as Simon the Zealot, but nothing else is known about him. His other name of “Simon Cananaeus” simply adapts another Hebrew word for “zeal” and has nothing to do with the town of Cana.

St Jude, Apostle

Jude, also called Thaddaeus, is the apostle who at the Last Supper asked the Lord why he showed himself only to the disciples and not to the world.
For many centuries he was scarcely venerated because people confused him with Judas Iscariot.
He is the patron saint of lost and desperate causes.

Wexford General Hospital Annual Service of Remembrance

Wexford General Hospital is holding their annual Service of Remembrance at Clonard Church, Wexford on Thursday 12th November 2026 at 7.30pm – this is an annual event.

The Service of Remembrance is particularly intended for families and friends of those who died at Wexford General Hospital over the past year or who have a strong connection with the hospital. However, the service is also open to anyone who wishes to attend.

The purpose of the service is to provide an opportunity to remember, as a community, the people we loved and who have died - to reminisce and celebrate their lives and all they meant to us. This event is open to people of all faiths and of none. Tea and coffee will be served afterwards.

The Service is organised on an annual basis by the End-of-Life Care Committee at Wexford General Hospital. This committee is comprised of staff from all areas of the hospital. Their work includes organising the Service of Remembrance, implementing initiatives such as the writing and sending out of sympathy cards, refurbishment of the mortuary and family rooms, providing written bereavement information for relatives and developing education programmes for staff.

Wexford General Hospital would also like to inform people about the Bereavement Support Line which is available from 10am to 1pm, Monday to Friday on 1800 80 70 77. This is a national Freephone service that has been set up by the Irish Hospice Foundation, in partnership with the HSE, to provide connection, comfort and support for those grieving in these exceptional times. Any adult who has been impacted by bereavement may contact the support line. For more information visit www.hospicefoundation.ie. We look forward to seeing you on Thursday 12th November at Clonard Church, Wexford at 7.30pm (19.30hrs)
